GERMANY CLAIMS THAT ENGLAND IS MAKING A FRANTIC APPEAL FOR HELP TO PORTUGAL

ALLIES NEED A RESPITE

As the Troops Have Been Fighting Continuously for 10 Days—Germans Claim a Victory for General Hindenberg In Poland.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Paris, Oct. 19.—The French war office gave an official announcement this afternoon as follows:

"In Belgium the heavy artillery of the enemy has cannonaded, but without result, the front from Nieuport to Vladsloo, to the east of Dixmude.

"The forces of the allies, and notably the Belgian army have not only repulsed further attacks on the part of the Germans, but have advanced as far as Roulers.

"On our left wing, between the River Lys and the canal of Labassee, we have advanced in the direction of Lille. There has been very stubborn fighting on the front from Labassee to Abalin an dto St. Nazaire. We are advancing from house to house in these localities.

"To the north and to the south of Arras our troops have been fighting without repite for more than 10 days, and with a perseverance and a spirit which never for a moment have been relaxed.

"In the region of Chaulnes we have repulsed a strong counter attack delivered by the enemy, and we have won some ground.

"On the center there is nothing to report.

"On our right wing in Alsace, to the west of Colmar, our advance posts are on the line between Bonhomme, Paris and Sulzern. More to the south we still occupy Thann."

GERMAN REPORT IS RECEIVED BY WIRELESS.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Berlin, By wireless to Sayville, L. I., Oct. 19.—According to reports from Russian sources at Warsaw, there are at least 800,000 Russians in Poland's campaign. There is great lack of medical and sanitary supplies and the hospitals at Kiev, Moscow and elsewhere, are overcrowded.

The Austrian offensive in Galicia is declared in Berlin to be advancing During the assault on Przemysl the Russians lost 40,000 men in killed and wounded.

Russian troops from Bessarabia have been sent to the Causasus, where revolts have broken out.

The Russians are finding difficulty in creating new military organizations. In spite of their numerical superiority, officers and non-commissioned officers are lacking at Warsaw.

It is expected in Berlin that General von Hindenburg the German commander in Russian Poland will be victorious.

"Great Britain's cry for help to Portugal." "The chaotic situation" in South Africa," and the "revolt in India," according to announcement made in Berlin today all are tending to raise German confidence. Reports received here from Constantinople declared that Great Britain has sent three active battalions from Malta to India.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Constantinople, Oct. 19.—(Via London.)—The porte has declined to discharge the German crews of the cruisers Goeben and Breslau which have been in Turkish waters since early in the hostilities and which are said to have been sold by Germany to the Turkish government.

The government has now shelved the matter, declaring it to be a domestic question, although it had previously given repeated assurances that these Germans would be repatriated.

Germans Must Hack Way Through Three Armies Now Confronting Them in West

If They Would Gain Any Important Adavantage, As The Extreme Left of the Allies Is Now In Close Contact With the British Navy and Their Flank Cannot Be Turned

VON KLUCK SEEMS WILLING TO EMPLOY SUCH TACTICS

And It is Unquestioned That the Teutons Have Made a Forward Move—In This Connection the British Office Has Given Out News That the Germans Have Been Driven Back 30 Miles—This Must Have Been On the Western Wing, Although Exact Point is Not Known.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

London, Oct. 19.—By recalling their tentacles out of the seaboard the allied forces have established close contact with the British navy which is now in the extreme left of the line and seems—from the London view—for the moment to block effectually a further German effort to turn this wing.

That the Germans may have grasped this is perhaps indicated in the otherwise unexplained appearance of four of their torpedo boat destroyers Saturday off the Dutch coast southward bound. It is suggested that the object was for the destroyers to convoy submarines which would dispute the command of the sea on the Belgian littoral. Should the German navy undertake this venture it would be confronted with much the same proposition as has met the British fleet since the commencement of the war and it would assume the same risks of colliding with mines heretofore faced by the British alone, because the British mine field stretches right along the Belgian coast from Ostend southward.

If, as the allies claim, their left cannot now be turned, the only alternative left the Germans is to hack a way through the trio of armies confronting them, and it is believed General von Kluck or General von Arnim or whoever is in command of the German right, seems in no way loath to make the attempt. That they have made a forward move is evident not only from the newspaper dispatches but from a confirmation of these dispatches in Saturday's official communication from Paris, which stated that the Belgians had repulsed several attempts of the Germans to cross the river Yser which is ten miles nearer the coast than is the Thourout, Roulers and Menin line which they occupied on the previous day.

As an offset to this the British information bureau in one of its rare communications says that the allies in the northern area have driven the Germans back more than 30 miles. The precise locality of this advance and retreat is not indicated, but it can have been only at some point on this western wing where the Germans are trying to resume their interrupted dash on Paris by way of the coast towns.

From the point of view of the allied armies, so far as could be learned from despatches reaching London today, the situation in West Flanders and in France as far south as Lille, seemed on this, the seventy-seventh day of the war, perhaps more hopeful than at any time since the German advance on Paris was checked.

Though the news reaching England is meager and to an extent delayed as always, all tidings seem to indicate that the German advance from Ostend on the French coast towns has been blocked temporarily at least, while further south in a region that was a week ago the extreme German right, the invaders have been again compelled to give ground before the allies' wedge force which has been concentrating on Lille. Several reports contend that the Germans have withdrawn from this town, but this is not confirmed, nor is the report that they evacuated Courtrai, nearly thirty miles northwest. It seems plain, however, that the menace here grew marked and that the German army operatng along the coast of Flanders found itself in peril of being cut off from the main body.

What opposition they met along the was is only guess work for it has never been disclosed in Great Britain what

Japanese Cruiser Sunk by Mine

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Tokio, Oct. 19.—It is officially announced that the Japanese cruiser Takachiho was sunk by a mine in Kiao Chow Bay on the night of October 17. One officer and nine members of the crew are known to have been saved.

The Japanese cruiser Takachiho was built in 1885 and refitted in 1900. She was a vessel of 3700 tons and was 300 feet long and had a 46 feet beam. Her main battery consisted of eight 6 -inch guns and her speed was about 18 knots.

The Takachiho carried a crew of 357 men, only 10 of whom, according to the official report are known to have been saved.

At the time she went down the Takachiho had on board a complement of 284 men.

River Choked With German Dead

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Petrograd, Via London, Oct. 19.—A newspaper correspondent in Lemberg, referring to the German losses in the attempts to cross the upper San river, telegraphs that this stream is filled with the bodies of German soldiers floating down to augment similar flotsam on the Vistula, where other German troops have met the same fate. The correspondent says that none of the repeated attempts to cross to San yet has been successful.

Several of the outer forts at Przemysl are reported to have been captured, but these are not considered important, in so much as Przemysl already has been isolated and surrounded.

OFFENSIVE

MOVEMENT OF ALLIES IN NORTHERN FRANCE PREDICTED BY CRITIC

Paris Expert Refuses to Concur That Battle of Aisne Has Been Definitely Won.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Paris, Oct. 19.—An uninterrupted offensive movement by the allies at certain points in northern France was predicted here today, as the battle was resumed. The retaking of Armentieres, on the River Lys, on the Belgian frontier, and the occupation, ten miles west of Lille, of the right line leading towards Douai, via Givenchy and Fromelles was considered as constituting an excellent advance guard position by reason of its numerous places of support. This with the progress in several other sections, notably Arras, gave the allies hope of a continuance of their advance.

Lieutenant Col. Rousset, the military critic, in reviewing the military situation, refused to concur in the statement made that the battle of the Aisne has been definitely won by the allies.

"One never knows what will happen" he says, 'and while the enemy will not take the return route, a revival of its activity can be produced in another vicinity, especially if the Germans see that their maneuvers in the north is endangered. But it is certain that upon the horizontal line, going from the Oise to the Meuse, the allies have nothing to fear as every effort of the Germans from this side would certainly be stopped.

"As to the new battle that of Flanders, it is clearly offensive on the side of the allies. The circumstances which inspires us is that it will develop no ground more favorable for attack than for defense and that it is undulating land, widely spread where troops can easily defile for aggressive movements.

The Socialists of France have declared as inopportune and premature the suggestions made that their comrades in the United States hold an international Socialist peace congress.

The public was greatly pleased that Sunday passed without a visit from German aeroplanes and today it had much praise for the activity and vigilance of the aviation guard.

ALLIES

ARRIVE FIRST AT CALAIS AND HAVE CHECKMATED VON KLUCK'S PLANS

French Cavalry by Daring Feat of Arms Crosses Swollen River at Night.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

London, Oct. 19.—A correspondent of the Times in France, telegraphing Sunday declares that any plan the German general, von Kluck, may have had for sweeping down on Calais has failed because, he says, the allied forces arrived there first.

"When last Thursday week the Germans put out a feeler toward Hazebrouck from which a raid on Calais would have been easy," the correspondent continues, "the French cavalry assumed the offensive and performed a very gallant feat at arms. The Prussians hold the right bank of the river Lys in force and searchlights and Mitrailleuses were trained on the two forts at Merville and Estaires.

"The French cavalry commander, under cover of night, collected his men near Aire on the left bank of the river, without being detected. Here the current is swift and the water deep and the Germans regarded the river at this point as unfordable. A French trooper who is an expert swimmer stripped and swam across the stream bearing a light line. When he reached the opposite bank he pulled a heavier rope across and made it fast and other men and horses began to cross. When dawn broke two thousand French dragoons were on the right bank of the river. The Uhlans saw themselves outnumbered and outflanked and retired toward Armentieres."

The Cadillac car from the Bryn Du farm near Granville was coming from the south end the Ford car, owned by J. F. Beebout of Mt. Vernon, O., had just turned into Pataskala and was going south. The drivers evidently became confused and the machines met head-on. Fortunately no one was hurt but the machines were badly damaged and both put out of commission. The Cadillac was pulled to the Bryn Du farm and the Ford was taken to the Hess Auto Agency in South Fifth street where it will be overhauled.

War Tax Bill Goes to House For Conference and Congress Will Adjourn After Its Passage

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Washington, Oct. 19. - The war revenue bill, as revised by the Senate, went to the House today for action. It was accompanied by a request from the Senate for a conference on the part of the House. Following the passage of the measure in the Senate which was preceded by the decisive defeat of the proposed cotton relief legislation conferees were appointed. They were Senators Simmons, Williams, Stone, McCumber and Clark of Wyoming.

Majority Leader Underwood was ready today to move the appointment of House conferees. He had summoned absentee members from nearby districts to make sure of a quorum. Lack of a quorm might prevent the war tax bill going into conference until tomorrow, as Southern Democrats, led by Representative Henry of Texas, have announced their intention to fight for cotton relief legislation. House leaders including Mr. Underwood were hopeful today that they would yield in their demand for such legislation, in view of its overwhelming defeat in the Senate. He was certain, however, that there would be little delay in the bill going to conference.

Conferees are expected to reach an agreement on the bill by Wednesday and approval of their report by both houses not later than Thursday. Adjournment of congress would follow at once.

Line of Transports Carrying Canadian Troops to England Presented a Thrilling Sight

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

New York, Oct. 19.—A line of grey transports led by a pilot boat and two British cruisers, and flanked by an armada of battleships, cruisers and destroyers, a line so long that it laid the smudge of its smoke against the sky as far as glasses could see to the east and west such was the fleet that carried Canada's troops to England—and its convoys as glimpsed from the decks of the Minnewaska, 370 miles from the mouth of the Thames on October 10. Officers of the steamer told of the spectacle upon her arrival here today.

There were 32 transports in the line and they churned the water of one another's wakes at distances of half a mile to a mile. Each transport flew the British flag and each was painted the battle color of the sea steel grey, even to the funnels. Well to the front of the long line, perhaps five miles in advance, steamed the leader- apparently sent ahead to make sure the way was clear for she carried no troops—with a cruiser starboard and another to port forward.

All the transports were convered passenger liners or merchantmen and some of them were recognized or at least it is thought they were, by the Minnewaska's officers who viewed the maritime procession through glasses.

The Lapland and the Zeeland were in the fleet; but all the names had been painted off so the officers were uncertain about the others.

The fleet moved in three lines. The transports between a line of warships on each side. Among the warships were many destroyers sent out from British ports to reinforce the larger war craft, as the fleet neared its destination.

The day was one of brilliant sunshine, the sky was cloudless and the distance of the Minnewaska from the line about five miles. Notwithstanding the fact that the British ensign floated over the liner, a cruiser darted from the line of convoys, circled the Minnewaska, came quite close and steamed alongside till the last transport was a speck on the horizon. Then the cruiser turned about and steamed away without a word, to join the rear guard.

GERMANS

All reports seem to agree that the city of Ostend is practically clear of Germans, who apparently are reforming to the south with reintorcements, and the siege guns used to batter the Belgian forts, and that they now propose to hamher on toward Dunkirk and Calais. One report says that they are beyond Furness, less than ten miles rrom Dunkirk.

Further south in France reinforcements from Brussels are said to have been brought up before Lille, which the Germans are reported as bombarding in a desperate attempt to retake the place. The Belgians themselves have been putting in some hard knocks. According to last night's Paris official communication they have held the Germans in an attempt to cross the River Yser, southwest of Dixmude, Belgium. This was the first heard of the Belgian forces since the evacuation of Antwerp and now they are found appropriately and picturesquely defending that little splotch of their own country that the invaders have not taken. King Albert, unheard of for some time, is said to have cheered the men in the field.

Some of the London newspapers describe the German evacuation of Ostend as a retirement to the east on the theory that the allies progress to the south threatened to isolate the Ostend garrison, making a retreat imprative. The dispatches are far from unanimous on the direction of the retirement however, most of them describing it as a pasage to the west and any attempt therefore to analyze it is but congectural.

From various sources came reports, none of which was confirmed, that some sort of naval craft are being pressed into use by the allies in the canals of Flanders and perhaps from the sea. Sunday a dispatch direct from Dunkirk said that heavy firing could be heard there and it was believed that gunboats were being used in the canals. It was added that heavy fighting was progressing south of Ostend which if true, meant the presence of allied forces at a point further north than heretofore suspected. This is contradicted by the report that the Germans are west of Furnes.

Though there was a sporadic recurrence of the anti-German rioting in parts of London early this morning, police protection in such places has been increased and no serious outbreaks were reported during the forenoon in the city but at Sanron-Walden, in Essex, an English lawyer's house was attacked and the windows smashed because it was said he had been harboring two Germans. In the continuation of the rioting at Deptford last night, a German grain dealer's house and store were wrecked and then fired.

In the eastern war area the great battle of Poland appears to be progressing in favor of the Russians, who claim to have checked decisively the German forces in their attempt to cross the Vistula. The Russians in and around Warsaw are being temporarily protected from fresh German artillery aggression by reason of the impassable condition of the country through recent rains and owing to the destruction of the only railroad from Lowicz to Warsaw on which the Germans could transport their heavy guns.

Around Przemysl the Austrians claim to have killed and wounded 40,000 Russians and also to have crossed the Carpathians, but on the other hand the Russians repulsed an Austrian attempt to cross the river San. That the Austrians are meeting with vigorous opposition is admitted in the latest Vienna dispatch which says that "our troops are advancing as against a fortress"

NEURALGIC PAINS

Among the causes of neuralgia the most important is the general physical condition of the patient. Neuralgia is most common in persons reduced in strength by over-work or some form of over-exertion, physical or mental, or by loss of sleep. Anaemia, or lack of good, red blood is a common cause of neuralgia. The reason for this is plain. The nerves get their nourishment through the blood. When the blood is thin and weak the nerves are badly nourished, they become inflamed and neuralgic pains are produced. These pains have been described as "the cry of a starved nerve."

Hot applications to soothe these inflamed nerves and Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to build up the blood and carry the needed elements to the nerves is the correct treatment and one that has brought good results in so many cases that it is no longer an experiment. Headache, backache, sleeplessness, nervous debility, nervous breakdown, St. Vitus' dance and the functional forms of partial paralysis show good results under the tonic treatment with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Send today for the booklet on Nervous Disorders to the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y. It is free.

FITZSIMMONS TEAM BEATS ZANESVILLE

In a rough game on a wet field, the Fitzsemmons football team composed of Newark young men who have seen service on fast college or high school teams in the past, defeated Zanesville's Armcos by a score of 19 to 12. Claude Hager, Newark half end, suffered a fractured rib, and several of the Zanesville players received nasty cuts about the head, which necessitated surgical attention before the men returned to Zanesville. Hager visited Dr. P. H. Cosnet who dressed his injuries.

Although this was the first game played by the Newark team it showed considerable class. As an average, the players were heavier than their opponents but the visitors had the advantage of previous experience together.

Zanesville won the toss and received the kickoff, returning the ball quickly to Newark's five yard line where a fumble gave Newark possession of the oval. In less than ten minutes, Newark had carried the ball over Zanesville's goal for two touchdowns.

In the second half, Newark scored another touchdown and Zanesville scored two.

For Newark, Smith was the bright and shining light, and Schaum, Ewing and Hutcheson were stars for Zanesville. Line up:

WILLIS PASSES THROUGH NEWARK TO BARNESVILLE

Hon. Frank B. Willis, Republican candidate for governor, Hon. W. A. Archer, Republican candidate for secretary of state, S. A. Cuneo of Upper Sandusky, O., assistant publicity manager of the Republican campaign, who accompanied Mr. Willis in his itinerary over the state, and John C. Burke, the well known political writer of the Cleveland Leader, were in the city Monday morning enroute to Barnesville where Mr. Willis speaks today.

Mr. Willis informed an Advocate representative that he was in excellent health, considering the strenuous campaign which he was passing through and that he was looking forward to a pleasant visit with his Newark and Licking county friends next Friday, when he is booked for an auto tour of the western part of the county.

Thorp's Corpse.

Testators' requests often lead to strange results. A scotchman, Thomas Thorp, left all his worldly goods to his two nephews on condition that they erected a monument to his memory with at least one verse inscribed thereon. These careful brothers searched long and ardently for a verse at once brief and apt, but they found that the poets were inclined to run to words. They asked the aid of the monument mason, who suggested that the following couplet would admirably meet the case:

Here lies the corp
Of Thomas Thorp.

The brothers thought this apt, but wordy. The mason cogitated long and deep, and, to the satisfaction of every one, the verse found upon the stone was:

Thorp's
Corpse.

German Courtship.

The form in which a proposal of marriage is made has undergone great change in Germany during the past few years. At one time any young man who proposed marriage attired himself in his dress suit and carried a bouquet as an offering to his chosen one. We must not seek to pry into the intimacy of such proposals, but if the disconsolate lover left the house carrying his bouquet with him it was a sure sign that he was rejected. Nowadays proposals are less formal, but engagements are no less binding. In fact, a betrothal is regarded as almost as solemn and binding as the wedding itself. On every possible occasion German lovers appear arm in arm, and the custom is not confined to one class alone. Peasants walk thus, and princes and princesses follow the popular custom.—London Standard.

George L. Dowell and Miss Nellie Marie Gregory, both of this city, were married Saturday afternoon by Justice D. Jones, at his office in South Third street. They were accompanied by the bride's father, G. R. Gregory and her sister, Mrs. Myrtle M. Shultz. The new wedded couple will reside in this city.

Rochefort In Court.

Henri Rochefort went to court often, it is said, as plaintiff, defendant or witness than any other man in Paris. Partly this was because of his articles, partly because of his continual dealings with the picture dealers, with whom he often disagreed. In his later years, moreover, he was often called as a "witness" by parties in political suits, not because he had any pertinent testimony to present, but because he had a happy faculty when on the witness stand of making the government, the police and all that set appear a set of fools or scoundrels. The French code of procedure allows a witness much more latitude in "telling his own story" than does ours. And Rochefort's stories, whether relevant or not, were sure to have a sting in them for the folk in authority.—New York Sun.

Musical Marvels.

It has been said of Dr. Hans von Bulow and Rubinstein that, if every note of music worth preserving had been destroyed, they could between them have reproduced every line of it. Von Bulow once gave a series of twenty piano recitals without a line of music and striking approximately 1,250,000 notes, each of which had to be retained in its exact position in his memory; and Verdi once, for a wager, played faultlessly an entire opera, drawn by lot, which he had composed fourteen years earlier and of which he was not allowed to see a note.

PETROGRAD

DURING WAR TIME SEES CHANGE OF NAMES OF FIRMS AND INCORPORATIONS

From German to Russian, and the Former Asked Not to Speak Their Language in Public.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

The Hague, Sept. 24.—The situation in Petrograd is treated extensively in a letter appearing in the Berliner Tageblatt of September 22, which reads in part as follows:

"On the whole the government does its best to protect the life and property of the foreigner—even the German. It has in this the support of the military authorities. During the days of the mobilization it was different, of course. But now one sees everywhere posters warning against the molestation of foreigners, and which call upon those who may have been mistreated to make prompt reports, promising severe punishment for the offenders. What is more the promises are strictly kept and persons guilty of excesses against foreigners have been heavily punished.

"In order to minimize the chances for trouble it was thought best that German firm names make place for inscriptions in Russian, and the Germans were asked to refrain as much as possible from speaking their language in public. But the best measure for the protection of the foreigners undoubtedly was the prohibition of the sale of strong alcoholic beverages. Petrograd today has the appearance of being a city of sober people. While formerly one beheld everywhere the repulsive, beastly state of intoxication of the hooligan—the mob with whom nobody was safe—today the street scenes of the capital are more inviting.

"The many extra editions of the newspapers speak constantly of victories of the Rusians and French over the Germans, and it is asserted that the farmer are already near Berlin. Foreign papers are rigorously excluded, and since even the many wounded are not permitted to come into contact with the public or see even their relatives, there is no difficulty keeping the Russion public under the impressian that the Russians are really near Berlin.

"There are no more tourists and the hotels are empty. In the hotels, moreover, everything has become very dear. A bottle of beer which formerly cost from 20 to 25 kopeks, now costs 40, while a glass costs 25 instead of 13. Food, on the other hand, has become cheaper. The war has absolutely put a stop to exports, and prices, therefore, have gone down. Ten fresh eggs, for instance cost 30 kopeks, and fine gat geese, which formerly cost a 1-2 to 4 roubles can now be had for 1.20 roubles. Coke can no longer be had at any price; the small supply on hand having been confiscated by the military. The navy is badly off for coal, its boilers being arranged for English coal, and Russian coal, which is not even possible to get in sufficient quantities, cannot be used by the navy without serious injury to the boilers. Most factories lack raw material, especially iron. There is also a serious shortage in medicaments and bandages of all sorts, which formerly were imported from Germany.

"Since none of the court ever comes to Petrograd one sees but seldom members of the best society, who are mostly in mourning on account of the Russian elite troops having lost many officers in the fighting in East Prussia, the majority of whom belonged to the capital's best circles.

"Only the casualties in the commissioned personnel are published. Those who wish information concerning non-commissioned officers and privates are obliged to make inquiry at the ministry. This method has so far enabled the Russian government to keep the tremendous losses of the army from the multitude. Notwithstanding this depression grows daily, due to the fear that with the rumored defeat of the North Army, Petrograd may become the objective of an attack by either land or water. The rumor that the Austrian army has not been totally annihilated as had been claimed is gaining force, as is also the report that the Russian troops opposing them have so far not been able to participate in the operations designed to encircle Germany."

OHIO STATE'S RUNNERS WIN OVER DENISON

Granville Oct. 19, ... heavy course, Ohio State cross country trotters proved their superiority to Denison runners Saturday afternoon. The scarlet and grey placed six men in the first 10, three of which were in the first five upon which the result of the race hinged.

Running strong at the finish, with a distance of a full ... yards between him and his nearest competitor, Nevin of State won first honors, reeling off the four miles 27 minutes and 30 seconds. Following in his wake came Weber, a Denison runner. But from third place on the men all came in a bunch. Ferguson ... and Dawson of State split third place, Dawson later being awarded fourth. Captain Chase of Denison romped ... with a fifth, and the meet was won for State, as only the first five men figured in the scoring.

From fifth to tenth positions the following finishes were made: Bard, State; Phillips, State. Allison, Denison; Bock, State; Lyman, Denison. Director of Field Sports Castleman of Ohio State acted as official starter.

HEART FAILS AS EMSWILLER WALKS TRACKS

Eli Emswiller, 60, a native of West Virginia, was found dead along the railroad tracks near St. Louisville Sunday evening about dusk, his death having resulted from an attack of heart trouble with which he has been afflicted for some time.

The deceased was a native of West Virginia, but has been staying with relatives in the northwestern part of the county for several months past. Mrs. J. W. Hughes of the Welsh Hills vicinity is a sister, and John D. Emswiller of Knox county, near Mt. Vernon is a brother.

A woman living in the vicinity of the railroad where the body was found saw the man stumble and fall along the tracks. Thinking the man was intoxicated, she paid no further attention to him until some time later when she saw that the body was still lying where he fell.

The Bazler & Bradley ambulance brought the body to their morgue here and prepared for burial.

Coroner Wyland accompanied the ambulance to St. Louisville and viewed the body before it was removed. A verdict of death from heart failure probably will be rendered by the coroner.

The body will be taken to Homer for burial Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

HONESTY ON ONE HAND; DISHONESTY ON THE OTHER

$1,170,261.30 has been received as interest on state funds since Feb. 1, 1910.
$5,000,000 and more has been received this year in the state of Ohio and subdivisions.
$350,000 will be the receipts for 1914 on the money handled by Treasurer J. P. Brennan.

Just a few years before Democrats came into control, not a dollar was realized from interest on public funds and the disgusting manipulation of public money for private profit created a sensation in every nook and corner of the state.

Does any taxpayer want to go back to the old methods? Is it safe to trust party leaders who once looted the public treasury?

Yet Warren G. Harding, who, by a letter in August, 1907, secured $20,000 for his bank by political pull, says he wants Frank B. Willis to make the Republican party what it was before.

BREAK A CHILD'S COLD BY GIVING SYRUP OF FIGS

When your child suffers from a cold don't wait; give the little stomach, liver and bowels a gentle, thorough cleansing at once. When cross, peevish, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, eat or act naturally; if breath is bad, stomach sour, give a teaspoonful of 'California Syrup of Figs,' and in a few hours all the clogged-up, constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again.

If your child coughs, snuffles and has caught cold or is feverish or has a sore throat give a good dose of "California Syrup of Figs," to evacuate the bowels no difference what other treatment is given.

Sick children needn't be coaxed to take this harmless "fruit laxative." Millions of mothers keep it handy because they know its action on the stomach, liver and bowels is prompt and sure. They also know a little given today saves a sick child tomorrow.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which contains directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup company."

EVACUATION OF LILLE BY GERMANS FOR THIRD TIME

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

London, Oct. 19.—"Lille has been evacuated by the Germans for the third time," says the Telegraph's correspondent in the north of France. "This evacuation was made necessary by the allies' capture of Laventie and Estaires, which forced the Germans to hastily leave the plain between Hazebrouck and Lille.

"Everywhere along our left flank we have been successful and the Germans are falling back under pressure which they cannot resist. It is not even certain that they will hold Ostend. Refugees tell me that there were no Germans in Ostend on Friday.

"The German army has not been defeated in the western theatre of action but its position is one of extreme peril. The allies took Bailleuil, 17 miles northwest by west of Lille on Thursday."

BOMB EXPLODED IN APARTMENTS ITALIAN CONSUL

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

New oYrk, Oct. 19.—The police today are investigating a destructive explosion which occurred yesterday in the basement of a Fifth avenue apartment house in which Giacomo Fara Forni, Italian consul general in New York has an apartment. William Walters, engineer of the house, was blinded by the explosion and was not expected to live. Inspector Egan of the bureau of combustibles, after an examination of the premises, declared that the damage had been caused by some high explosive, perhaps a bomb.

Consul Forni was out of town and his apartment on the third floor was not damaged. It was recalled in connection with the explosion that the consul's life had been endangered three times this year, the last occuring on September 18, when he was struck down by a blackjack as he was leaving the subway.

Human System Injured By One Cup of Coffee

Its Constant Use Tends to Increase Fatigue Products Says Kansas City Physician.

The constant use of coffee and tea tends to increase fatigue products in the human system says Dr. G. Wilse Robinson, of the University Medical College, Kansas City, Mo.

"Caffeine is used in coffee and tea as a beverage for its stimulating effects. Even in small doses, one cup of coffee or tea per day, the general results of the action of caffeine upon the nervous system are to increase the irritability of the brain.

"In order to respond to the stimulation of regular doses of caffeine, nerve and muscle tissue must draw upon their reserve energy, and they must do their work in the presence of an excessive quantity of toxic fatigue products, both of these conditions tend to exhaustion and perversion of function.

"Caffeine is not a food to nerve or muscle tissue. It does not increase the elimination of fatigue products, but does increase their production."

NOTE.—Too much cannot be said in favor of the value of an invigorating morning drink, especially during colder weather—but the drink must not be harmful. The food-drink, INSTANT POSTUM, while resembling the better grades of Java in flavor and appearance is pure, wholesome and wholly free from the coffee drugs 'caffeine' and 'tannin' and is rapidly taking the place of coffee as a table beverage for reasons of health.

KATHARINE GRACE KERRIGAN

Two and one-half year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Kerrigan, St. Louisville, Ohio.

played to a good house Saturday night and gave excellent satisfaction. It does not as the name implies, border on the burlesque, but on the contrary is brim full of catchy song numbers, good comedy and dainty dances. A number of novelties were introduced which added spice throughout the play and were well received by the audience.

Mr. Lee Greenwood as the Jew comedian, Rudolph Plastic, was new to a Newark audience but he won instant favor and kept things moving during the three acts of the play. His witticisms were clever and his singing made a big hit, one number, "A Sparerib From the Butcher Shop of Life," bringing down the house the singer being forced to respond to a half dozen encores.

Miss Olle Carew as "Argentina, the World's Greatest Tango Dancer" had an excellent voice and her solos were more than pleasing. The latest dances as depicted by herself and Mr. Curt Vance were very graceful and they were compelled to respond to many encores during the evening.

The eight tango dancers, four men and four women found favor with every one and they are a big part of the assets of the company. Some of the song hits of the play were, "When a Little Boy Loves a Little Girl," "In Berlin," "September Morn," "Everybody's Tango Crazy," "Where Is the Pleasure In Wine and Song," "The Sunshade Girl," "Beautiful Dreams I'm Dreaming" and "I Lost My Girl on Broadway." Mention should be made of Miss Georgia Ellen whose solos and duets made a decided hit.

GERMAN ADVANCE BEING REPULSED BY ALLIED ARMY

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

London, Oct. 19.—The advance of the German force threatening the northern French seacoast, has been halted for a moment, says the correspondent of the Chronicle in northern France. "The Germans have suffered heavily in the recent fighting and are now short of munitions and stores. However, they are preparing to strike a heavy blow. It is probable that they will attempt to penetrate the defenses of Dunkirk with the object of overruning the French coast as far as Calais and Boulogne. The heavy siege guns from Antwerp are being moved towards the present German line, while large bodies of German troops are being pushed forward. A large force of Germans is centered at Thourout, 12 miles southwest of Bruges, Belgium.

"Dunkirk is calm, although the city realizes that it is menaced. Along the front of both armies the duties in the trenches is made more unpleasant by heavy rains and the ground between the armies in many cases is a bog. The weather is turning colder and the mists and fogs make the low lying country unhealthy."

GRANVILLE GIRL WON TOURNAMENT IN TENNIS PLAY

Mrs. Stella Case Bell, formerly of Granville, was one of the victors in an important tennis tournament at Brooklyn last week, according to the Brooklyn Eagle, a copy of which has been received here. The Eagle says:

"Tournament play for the season was concluded Monday on the courts of the Wertland club, Russell Hendrickson and Mrs. Bell managing to capture the mixed doubles from Karl Struss and Miss Dunton of Hollis after a gruelling contest, the sets resulting 19-17 and 6-1. The match brought out a fair attendance and friends of the players had the pleasure of witnessing a high quality of fast and spirited tennis that was replete with thrilling "gets" and clever placement shot."

Mrs. Bell is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Burton Case of Granville, a member of Kappa Phi Sorority of Shepardson College, whose marriage to Robert Bell of New York occurred six years ago, since which time Mr. and Mrs. Bell have been closely identified with the social life of Queens, Long Island.

If You Wake Up With Terrible Backache

Or dull pain in the region of the groin, it is time to give some attention to your kidneys. The Glue Democracy.

When the ranks of the True Democracy League, better termed the Willis Aid Society, Harvey C. Garber, generalissimo and Edward A. Crawford, brigadier are surveyed, some familiar faces are discerned There's S. D. Webb, of Athens, let out of his place as superintendent of the State Industrial Home for Girls at Delaware by Governor Harmon, to make way for a woman supervisor at the request of the State Federation of Women's Clubs. Next there is Edward Sawyer, of Cleveland, who was "forcibly resigned" by Governor Harmon from his job as superintendant of the State Soldiers and Sailors Orphans Home at Xenia for reasons which he should be willing to give if he is brave. Next in line is Charles Shively, of Norwalk turned down as a candidate for Postmaster by Congressman Bathrick Beside him is Chris McKee, of Noble defeated four to one by Congressman George White in the recent Democratic primary. His right hand companion is Morgan Whitehead, of Youngstown, rejected last August as a candidate for State Senator Carrying a sword is Charles Cassingham, of Cleveland who led the unsuccessful fight to prevent the passage of the coal screen bill as a representative of the Ohio Coal Operators Association. Standing rigidly at attention is Louis Day, of Chillicothe, who was denied a nomination for Judge of the Court of Common Pleas by his fellow Democrats in Ross county. Farther along is "Barney" Hubert, of Toledo, who has been in a dozen different political parties in as many years. Near him is S. S. White, of Morrow, fired from the job of deputy State Oil Inspector for reasons, which if he is as courageous as Mr. Sawyer, he will also make public. The brigadier, Gen. Crawford, was not reappointed as State Public Printer by Governor Cox when he fervently desired another term. Several of them were seekers for appointment under the State administration they now s. ardently denounce It was William Jennings Bryan who coined the epigram concerning the aid society "I never saw a true Democracy that supported Republican candidates." The slogan of the League should be "A vote for Willis is a step nearer to the fodder shock for us."

1781—Lord Cornwallis surrendered the British army to George Washington at Yorktown, Va. With his force heavily outnumbered and completely hemmed in by Colonial and French soldiers and warships, the plight of Cornwallis was hopeless. The captured garrison was accorded "honors of war."

ASTRONOMICAL EVENTS.

Evening stars: Mercury, Jupiter. Morn. Venus. Morning star: Saturn Planet Mercury's exceptionally bright phase noticeable for four days, low in the west, after sundown.

Cox's "Machine."

The Workmen's Compensation law was bitterly attacked some time ago by Mr. Willis who called it the Cox "machine." Well, call it a machine" if you want to; the people are wishing the Governor would put out a few more "machines"

By the way, the monkey wrench that Willis attempted to throw into this "machine" struck him upon the cranium and it was sometime before he knew where he was "at," as Mr Cobb would say His shyness at this "machine" now is as pronounced as an old rural "hoss" at a steam engine.

Frank B. Willis, the anti-progressive and standpat candidate for Governor, wants to return to the good old days of Republicanism, when every candidate for a Republican state office had to make a pilgrimage to Cleveland before he decided to run to the days when Walter D. Guilbert manipulated the state auditor's office, and Isaac B. Cameron now under charge of embezzlement of state funds, was state treasurer; and it was in these days that Governor Harris proclaimed from the stump "All is well at the State House."

Chairman Newton M. Miller, of the Republican State Committee, as manager of the Ohio Tractor Co. sees great business prospects if the election of his candidate, because that nuisance, the State Highway Department, will be out of the way and "relief" will come to the road machinery salesmen.

Those who have charge of the affairs of the party of Lincoln Garfield the elder, Garrison and Lovejoy, are still desperately fighting the betterment of rural schools. And once it claimed to be the party of education!

Unshaken by the unauthorized action of the State Committee in a moment of desperation, the Republican State platform still stands for the wet amendment. "Pete" Durr of Cincinnati, who wrote the liquor plank says so.

"A Republican Governor will relieve" Slogan of the lobbyists who are putting up the Willis campaign fund.

Bryan says that he is sticking to Cox because Cox stuck to him when it was unpopular to be for that great leader

Willis Sneers at Wilson.

Every act of Congressman Willis at Washington has been against President Wilson's policy of giving peace and prosperity to the people of the United States. He has upheld standpatters Mann and Humphrey, opposed the tariff revision, the currency reform, the emergency insurance bill to furnish outlet for the congested farm products.

In his campaign speeches in Ohio he has sneered at the President's Watchful Waiting" and said his Mexican policy, which saved this country from bloody war was puerile nd pusillanimous

Willis was a reactionary in the Ohio Legislature.

State Auditor A. V. Donahey with one statement has wiped out completely the cooked-up figures prepared by a State House parasite to bolster up the charge that the tate Highway Department was costing too much. And what's more, Mr. Willis will not attempt to deny he Auditor's statistics.

As a party counsellor for the Cincinnati Times-Star warns the Republican organization against its companionship with Congressman John J. Whitacre and the Glue Democracy. Afraid the smell won't come off, eh?

Merely as a matter of information it is stated that a veteran lobbyist whom Governor Cox forced to register as such under the first law passed during his administration, is now preparing the anti-tax and anti-good roads material at Republican State headquarters

How unfortunate that Insurance Agent Ferris should say that "a Republican Governor will give us relief" when he appealed for votes to hamstring the workmen's compensation act.

FOREIGN N.. ES

Those awful names of foreign towns, where, in their blood-stained handmeadowns the warriors of Europe serve such names should dislocate the mind I'd like to lay all work aside and to the corner drug store slide and there discuss with sundry friends, the war, until the bloodshed ends. But every time I start to grasp I strike a name that bids me stop, that makes me feeble in the knees until I catch my breath and sneeze What sense is there. O sacred saints, in making names of consonants I pick the paper up at night and start to read about some fight, wherein ten thousand men were slain two house-wife hists, as though in pain the children gather round my chair to hear the story of despair, and grim, so she's sure to hear, inserts a trumpet in her ear. I read perhaps a dozen lines, of forts besieged, exploding mines, and then I quit—the smell is P—I'm up against "Pzliwszdipilshikoff" I murmur, "I can read no more" I roll a while upon the floor, and mute some plaster from the wall and kick the stovepipes till they fall, and maybe when I've got my breath I'll try again that tale of death."

Safety First.

Deaths and injuries form industrial accidents in the United States have been decreased 50 per cent. in the past six years. That is a pretty good record for the "safety first" principles, although it looks pretty small beside the increase of deaths and injuries under the militarist rule of Europe.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

America Is Attractive.

The American millionaires who own English castles are doing all they can to turn their beautiful possessions into hospitals. At the same time we notice that very few Americans are rushing to swear off allegiance to their own country with the hope of getting into the peerage, and Canada, whose premier promises "her last man," is no longer attractive to our young farmers who hold to Washington's view concerning entangling alliances.—Brooklyn Eagle.

A Vote of Confidence.

The World trusts that Mr. Bryan is right when he predicts that the Wilson Administration "is to receive in the Nation a vote of confidence." This is the most important issue in the campaign, and such a vote of confidence in the president can come only through the election of a Democratic House of Representatives. It is unfortunate that a President placed in the position that Mr. Wilson has been placed by circumstances is obliged to make his appeal for public support through the medium of partisanship; but there is no other method known to American politics by which the people can satisfy their confidence and faith in a Chief Magistrate.—New York World.

HOW TO VOTE JUDICIAL TICKET

Under the new non-partisan Judicial Ticket law, the candidates for the various Judicial offices will appear on a separate ticket, with nothing to designate their political position. The following explanation of the ticket is given in order that Democratic candidates may know how to mark their ballots. Those marked with the X are the Democratic nominees, and for these Democrats will vote. For convenience, the voter should cut this out and take it with him to the polls on November 3:

CUNNINGHAM'S HORSE DEVELOPS CASE OF RABIES

The horse of W. A. Cunningham of 263 North Fourth street developed a dangerous case of rabies Sunday and Monday morning it was found necessary to kill the animal. It is presumed that the disease was contracted from a bite inflicted by a collie dog which suffered from the trouble early this month.

It will be remembered that the dog disappeared from the Cunningham home early in October, after having bitten Mrs. Cunningham. She has been taking the Pasteur serum under the direction of Dr. Carl Evans, having had 15 out of 20 treatments. The treatment has been successful but will be continued as a precautionary measure.

The horse which was bitten, began showing signs of the development of the disease several days ago. Veterinary T. E. Jones was called and administered treatment, but without success. Monday when he visited the barn where the animal was quartered, it lunged at him and showed other indications of hydrophobia.

Dr. Jones passed death sentence on the animal and shot it.

After the dog had disappeared from the Cunningham home it wandered through the northern part of the county where it was said by a farmer. After learning the dog's fate Mr. Cunningham disinterred the body and sent the head to Columbus for examination. Columbus biologists reported that the animal had suffered from rabies and Mrs. Cunningham immediately started taking the Pasteur treatment.

Apropos of a marriage that threatened to turn out badly, a society woman uttered an appropriate and very true epigram.

Figures today by the department of commerce, however, show a remarkable decrease in the experts in August as a result of the European war, having fallen to 451 automobiles and motor trucks compared with 2,901 in the corresponding period last year. Canada was the largest purchaser of automobiles.

Aged Preachers in Germany.

The shamefully inadequate provision made for the support of the aged ministers of the gospel of most denominations in this country is in marked contrast to the superb provision made for them in Germany. There, it is stated, the young minister gets a minimum salary, usually $500 and a parsonage. This salary is increased every few years until at sixty-five the minister, even if he has changed his parish, receives $2,500, the largest compensation permissible, to which is to be added the use of the parsonage and certain fees given him. At sixty-five the minister can withdraw on a pension if he shall so elect or if the parish shall so desire, or he can continue by general consent five years longer. On withdrawing he receives as a pension for the rest of his life two-thirds of his last and highest salary. On his death his widow receives an adequate pension for the remainder of her days and also each of her children until their sixteenth or eighteenth year.—Christian Herald.

The Idea of Suggestion.

Richard Mansfield once said that when he was a lad in London he often nearly starved. There was a certain bakeshop where he would go and feast upon the odors coming from the door. That boyhood notion gave him the idea of putting those lines in his play, "Beau Brummel," about "dining on the names of things"—a suggestion he used with powerful dramatic effect.

This idea of suggestion has done many a good deed. About ninety years ago a thirsty man walked up Wall street—I understand the habit of getting a thirst no longer prevails there, or maybe it is only the manner of allaying it—and pumped a tin cup full of water from his own well. "Not so good as I used to get from my father's well," or something to that effect he remarked to his wife. "A pretty idea for a song," said she, and so he sat down and in an hour wrote "The Old Oaken Bucket."—Philadelphia Ledger.

Votaries of Church Bells.

The church bell has its votaries. Tennyson sang of "the mellow lin-lan-lone of the evening bells." And do you remember that experience of "Henry Ryecroft?" "I once passed a night in a little market town where I had arrived tired and went to bed early. I slept forthwith, but was presently awakened by I knew not what. In the darkness there sounded a sort of music, and, as my brain cleared, I was aware of the soft chiming of church bells. Why, what hour could it be? I struck a light and looked at my watch. Midnight. Then a glow came over me. 'We have heard the chimes at midnight, Master Shallow!' Never till then had I heard them. And the town in which I slept was Evesham, but a few miles from Stratford-on-Avon. What if those midnight bells had been to me but as any other and I had reviled them for breaking my sleep?"—London Chronicle.

Joke of a Sultan.

The sultan of Turkey once played a joke at the expense of some medical experts at Constantinople. When the plague broke out in his capital the sultan asked if anything was known as to the cause. On being informed that it was to be found in the state of the drinking water, he called at once for six empty bottles, which he had filled in his presence, all from the same one of the palace wells, placed his own seal upon them, and then, without divulging their community of origin, handed all six to a prominent analyst. To his amazement the report sent in was that four of the samples contained plague microbes. The fifth was merely putrid water, and the sixth was quite pure. Abdul Hamid calmly shrugged his shoulders and kept his thoughts to himself.

Would Fill the Bill.

Some who have attended councils and associations can appreciate this story of the late Rev. Dr. Norman Macleod of Edinburgh. Going into a room in which was a cage containing a large owl, he surveyed it for a long time. The owl sat unmoved, placid and erect. His mien was dignified, his horns impressive, his eyes cold and observant, his countenance sagacious and critical. At length Norman broke silence, "Man, ye wad mak' a splendid moderawtor!"—Christian Register.

Sentimentalism.

"Here's a very good definition of a sentimentalist."

"Let's hear it."

"'A sentimentalist is a person who weeps over a fallen column, but is too lazy to help set it up again.'"—Birmingham Age-Herald.

Forebodes Trouble.

When a woman rattles the dishes more than usual while preparing supper it's a sure sign that her husband will hear something drop when he comes home.—Atlanta Journal.

Slim Sarah.

In the days when Sarah Bernhardt's extraordinary thinness was the joke of Paris, Rochefort wrote, "An empty cab drove up to the theater, and Sarah Bernhardt alighted from it."

Granville

(Special to The Advocate)

Granville, Ohio, Oct. 19.—The girls of the Adelphian Literary society of Shepardson college are being congratulated on the brilliant success of their entertainment Saturday evening in Doane gymnasium, given in honor of the faculty and the boys of Cicero and Irving societies. The gym was converted into an elegant reception room by the artistic use of rugs, pillows and floral decorations. Dainty refershments were served and an informal good time was enjoyed by all present.

Mr. Russell Kimmell, '12, of Dayton, was a Granville visitor Saturday, the guest of his Beta brothers.

Mrs. C. E. Goodell is visiting relatives in Indianapolis, Ind.

Rev. Millard Brelsford left this morning for Canton, O., to attend the Ohio Baptist convention to be held from Monday until Thursday. On Tuesday evening Mr. Brelsford will give the annual address for the Ohio Baptist Education society.

Prof. Theodore Johnson delivered a temperance address in the Methodist church last evening to a large and appreciative audience. Prof. Johnson's interest in the present campaign against the liquor traffic is a heritage from his father, the late David Johnson, a prominent lawyer of Parkersburg, W. Va., who entered the fight for prohibition in that state thirty-four years ago. During these years of struggle Mr. Johnson was candidate for nearly every office in the state. He lived to see the fruition of his labors, though the law did not take effect until nearly a month after his death. In his son Theodore, Ohio has gained a capable champion of the temperance cause, and his services as lecturer have been secured by the men's organization of Granville.

A large crowd assembled at the Baptist church Sunday evening at the students' meeting. Mr. A. C. Wickenden, presiding. Brief addresses were made by Mr. Henry Vann, Mr. Millard Jordan, Mr. Nelson Rupp, Mr. Randolph Rector Mr. W. C. Woodward, which were full of enthusiasm and earnestness.

Miss Dora Lisle who has been visiting in Holmes county, has returned to her home in Broadway.

Every woman in Granville is cordially invited to the meeting of the Granville Woman's club, to be held in the Baptist church tomorrow, Tuesday afternoon, at half past two o'clock. Mrs. M. E. Stickney will preside; Mrs. L. W. Perry will lead the devotional exercises.

Mrs. Franklin and Miss Franklin, who have spent the past month at Chillicothe, their old home, have returned to Granville and taken up their residence in one of the Rousley apartments in South Prospect street.

Mr. Hugh Campbell of Chicago, who has been visiting the Alpha Nu Sigma boys for a week, has returned home.

NEWARK LOSES TO MT. VERNON; SCORE 30 TO 0

In a game which was played in a driving rain and on a field of sloppy mud and wet sod, Newark High went down in defeat before the Mt. Vernon High school team which rolled up a score of 30 points against Newark's nothing Saturday afternoon. Because of the weather conditions there was much fumbling on the part of both teams, but Mt. Vernon's superior back field showed enough class to bring victory to their school.

The interference and team work displayed by the Knox county boys were splendid and little trouble was experienced in executing plays around the Newark ends. But the attacks on Newark's line were ineffective.

The game was disastrous to Newark, two of the players being injured early in the contest. Brown was compelled to retire in favor of Emmons and Ryan, though injured, remained in the game until the end.

Jones, Newark's star back fielder, made a spectacular run of 60 yards through an open field but fortunately fell close to Mt. Vernon's goal, losing Newark's only opportunity to score.

Newark showed the same fault which was present in the game against Utica, a lack of team work. Both teams were penalized frequently. The lineup and summary:

ACCUSERS

OF MRS. FLORENCE CARMAN WILL BE FACED BY HER AT TRIAL BEGINNING TODAY

Doors of Court Room Locked After Seats All Taken, Barring Curious Crowds.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Mineola, N. Y., Oct. 19.—From a special panel of 150 talesmen, summoned to appear in the Supreme court here today, the jury will be selected for the trial of Mrs. Florence Conklin Carman charged with the murder on June 30, last, of Mrs Louise Bailey. Hundreds of persons anxious to attend the trial who have known Mrs. Carman for many years or who were friends of the murdered woman, were doomed to disappointment by the announcement that the courtroom would only seat about 200 spectators and the doors would be locked after that number had been seated.

The Nassau county courthouse where the trial was to begin today, and the jail nearby where Mrs. Carman occupied a cell attracted many visitors yesterday. Mrs. Carman yesterday held final conferences with her counsel and her husband, Dr. Edwin Carman in whose office, at Freeport, Mrs. Bailey was killed by a shot fired through a window. The state will try to prove that Mrs. Carman fired this shot.

Mrs. Carman is bearing up well, according to the jail physician. Her physical condition is such he said that she will be able to go into court and face her accusers.

William Bailey, husband of the murdered woman, last night announced that he would attend every session of the trial. Mrs. Bailey's mother, Mrs. Jennie Duryee, expressed a similar intention. For both sides, forty-three witnesses, are under subpoena for appearance today but it is believed that the jury box will not be filled before Tuesday afternoon.

In Common Pleas.

In Common Pleas court the court heard the evidence in the case of Daniel H. Alspach vs. W. D. Harris, et al., a suit to determine the right of defendant to erect a building at Buckeye Lake near plaintiff's cottage. The arguments of counsel will be made hereafter.

In the case of the Franklin National bank vs. Peoples National bank, a judgment was rendered for plaintiff for $741 26.

John L. Hughes vs. Samuel E. Forsythe, trial passed; the suit involves the covenants of a warranty deed and provisions as to the payment of gas rentals.

In the case of Edward Dodson vs. William Dodson, a suit for damages for assault and battery, a judgment of dismissal was entered. Smythe & Smythe and W. D. Fulton appeared for the parties.

Orville Simpson vs. Chas. A. Boyer, jury waived; submitted to court, and judgment for plaintiff for $75.

Manchester, England, last year imported 44,648,000 gallons of oil.

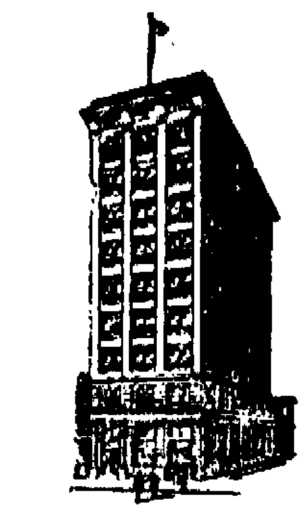

THE funds of this bank are invested with the greatest conservatism and with a knowledge resulting from long experience and careful study of general business and investment conditions.

NEW SERVICE STARTS TODAY AT ORPHEUM

Daniel Frohman today presents to the patrons of the Orpheum theatre as the opening number of the Paramount or Famous Players' service, H. B. Warner, the eminent dramatic favorite, in "The Lost Paradise," a five reel feature.

Manager Siebanoller of the Orpheum starts his new service today with every assurance of success. Mr. Warner won a distinguished stage triumph in the great play "Alias Jimmy Valentine." The new play, "The Lost Paradise," is conceded to be the greatest drama of capital and labor ever written and was adapted from the German original by the late Henry C. DeMille, collaborator in the famous Belasco-DeMille plays.

"The Lost Paradise" is a powerful argument in behalf of the oppressed laborers whose lives build the wealth of nations, whose tears are crystallized in the jewels of the rich. The inspiration of the original play was suggested by the army of the tired toilers who spin blindly on in the dark.

In the story, the superintendent of the Knowlton Works is in love with his employer's daughter, who has been reared in luxury and is the idol of her father. To save this woman from the knowledge that her father is a thief, the loyal superintendent takes upon his own shoulders the guilt of her father's crime. After all the stress which the story develops, his sacrifice is learned and rewarded by the woman he loves, who decides to stand with him on the side of the oppressed workmen to whose cause the superintendent has devoted his life's labor.

Mr. Warner portrays the role of the man who strives to reconcile the contending elements, and who is willing to sacrifice name and fame for the woman he loves.

The production has been pronounced by press and trade as the greatest film subject ever made in America.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S CHRISTIAN UNION

Wednesday night, beginning at 7:00 o'clock at Maple avenue Christian Union chapel, corner Maple and Norton avenues, will be held a combination meeting of Y. P. C. U. and temperance rally. This meeting will be under the auspices and leadership of the young men and will be well worth your while to spend your time to hear. The music and speaking will be especially interesting. There will also be one or two reading numbers by Mrs. Blanche Calhoun, that of itself will be well worth the cost of the effort to attend. This is a free entertainment, and the young folks want the house filled. Everybody invited to attend.

The special prayer meetings are being well attended by the people of the north end and a large interest is being manifested in the coming evangelistic meetings.

Mrs. Minnie Whitmer, of Napoleon, who has been visiting for a week at the home of Mrs. Rev. Baker, Norton avenue, returned to her home Monday.

Sunday, at Maple avenue C. U. chapel, the pastor spoke in anything [illegible] mincing terms, both morning and evening, emphasizing the duties of Christians to God and to fellowmen, [illegible] voters especially to preach and [illegible] the prohibition of all evil, especially the liquor evil as well as to [illegible] avocally stand for the right in all things regardless of what others may [illegible] or think.

HOME RULE OR PROHIBITION

The Home Rule Amendment Provides:

Vote "YES" NO Home Rule

FIRST—The Rose County Prohibition Law will be repealed.

SECOND—There shall be no State-Wide Prohibition except by vote of the people.

The effect of the Home Rule Amendment if adopted will be that every city, village and township in Ohio will have the right to vote itself wet or dry. This means that one community will not be controlled by another against its will.

The Amendment retains the township and municipal local option laws intact. These laws cover all the territory of the state.

The amendment retains the Jones residence district local option law absolutely undisturbed.

It does not touch any regulatory laws—the license law, the sales to drunkards law, the sales to minor law, the Sunday law, or any other regulatory law.

These are the unanimous conclusions of Attorney General Hogan, Judson Harmon, William L. Day, Lawrence Maxwell, James E. Campbell, John A. McMahon, Wade H. Ellis and George B. Okey.

> "The language of the amendment is too plain to need outside help to find its meaning. But if such help were needed it would be found in the general knowledge that for years there have been constant contention and trouble because the will of the people of municipalities has been overborne by the votes of those who do not live in them."

Vote "NO" ON Prohibition

Prior to 1908 we had in Ohio local option laws under which every inch of territory in the state could be voted dry. The object of these laws was to consult the will of the people in the places affected.

Under these laws some municipalities and townships voted dry and other remained wet. The militant prohibitionists then planned the Rose County Option Law in order to force the wet towns and townships into their way of thinking.

If any given town or city in any county after an election under the local option law had voted itself wet, they proposed to make an end of its obstinacy by merging its self-governing power into that of the surrounding county if the latter territory happened to be dry.

Vote "YES" ON Home Rule

The Rose County Local Option Law was so framed that the county's vote is binding on the whole county only when the county votes dry. If the result of the vote is wet, the county is not the unit, and all towns or townships in that county have the right to go back to the old local unit and vote themselves dry, or if any municipalities or townships were dry before the county vote, they remain dry notwithstanding the county's verdict is wet.

The purpose of the framers of this law was to increase prohibition territory against the local option of the people.

After eighteen months trial of the Rose law, Judge E. E. Corn, of the Common Pleas Court, Ironton, a well-known "Dry" leader, said:

> "I have voted dry at every local option election that has been held where I have had a right to vote. * * * In my humble opinion, from a temperance standpoint, the county local option law IS A FAILURE."

The operation of the Rose law has had a baneful and blighting effect upon every county that has tried it.

Vote "NO" ON Prohibition

Families were divided and former loyal friends became in many instances bitter enemies.

Business men were boycotted, bulldozed and coerced by the contending elements.

Violence to the property and person of individuals on both sides of the question prevailed.

People residing in the rural communities were arrayed against those in the larger centers by an appeal to prejudices.

Citizens in the larger communities were stirred to bitterness by what they contended was interference with their affairs by the people residing in the rural communities.

In the towns and cities made dry against their will under the Rose County Prohibition law, business stagnation ensued, people preferring to deal in other counties rather than enter communities where chaos and strife prevailed.

Public improvements in communities affected by the Rose law were stopped; the police, fire and health departments were weakened, the public thoroughfares were neglected; the efficiency of the little red school house was impaired and county institutions were seriously crippled.

This inefficiency and neglect in the conduct of public affairs were produced by the wiping out of the immense revenues derived directly and indirectly from the liquor business.

And all of the time in these Rose law blighted communities taxes mounted higher and higher.

Vote "YES" ON Home Rule

In the communities affected by the Rose law, property was confiscated without compensation; men and women were thrown out of employment, affecting the butcher, the baker, the grocer, and all others from whom they purchased supplies; houses and store rooms were vacated, causing a tumbling of rents and property values.

And with it all there was no moral advancement, even from the viewpoint of the prohibitionist.

Bootleggers, blind tigers and kitchen bar rooms sprang into existence as the successor of the open, regulated public drinking place.

With the passage of the Rose law came the Search and Seizure law. Under its operation private homes were invaded by dry detectives, even when the liquors in the homes were for household consumption. This infamous law still stands and under State-Wide Prohibition would be made more drastic.

Vote "NO" ON Prohibition

The repudiation of the Rose law after a three years' trial is strikingly shown by the fact that 18 counties, previously dry, on the second election voted wet. These 18 counties on first elections gave an aggregate dry majority of 15,303. On the second election they gave an aggregate wet majority of 17,178. Note the tremendous change of public sentiment!

Eleven of the larger counties, with a total population of 2,600,000, have had no elections under the Rose law: Butler, Hamilton, Montgomery, Auglaize, Cuyahoga, Lucas, Ottowa, Erie, Summit, Crawford and Franklin.

If the people in these counties would avoid the direful experiences of a Rose County Prohibition war they should join hands with the voters of the counties that have passed through such terrifying conditions and assist in the adoption of the Home Rule Amendment.

Will the voters listen to the counsel of blatant agitators or will they accept the conclusion of President Woodrow Wilson? He says: "I am in favor of local option. I am a thorough believer in local self-government."

The State-Wide Prohibition Amendment

Vote "YES" ON Home Rule

In these times of business depression due to the war in Europe would, if adopted, turn the state upside down and invite commercial calamity.

It is almost unbelievable that any set of persons would seriously propose a thing so far reaching as the complete prohibition of the manufacture and sale of alcoholic beverages in Ohio.

Notwithstanding the millions invested in the business of manufacturing and selling beer, wine and distilled liquors in this state, the confiscation of which would entail bankruptcies and bank disturbances, the prohibition question is forced upon the attention of the voters.

The State-Wide Prohibition Amendment will be far more devastating throughout the entire state than the Rose County Prohibition Law in the counties torn asunder by its operations.

If there was not a demand for liquors for beverage purposes, they would not be manufactured and sold.

Vote "NO" ON Prohibition

The State-Wide Prohibition Amendment prohibits the sale, manufacture for sale and importation for sale of liquors for beverage purposes.

This plainly means that anyone purchasing wine, beer or whiskey in Ohio for his personal use, should prohibition prevail, becomes a party to a criminal act.

In order to make prohibition effective, search and seizure laws would be made more drastic and every person having liquor in his own home, in his own family ice-box, would have the pivacy of his house invaded by dry detectives.

As under county prohibition, conflicts would arise between those who believe they have the right to indulge in liquors for beverage purposes and those who would fasten their "holier-than-thou" ideas upon their fellow citizens; and the same bitterness, strife and chaos created by county prohibition would be extended throughout the entire state.

Vote "YES" ON Home Rule

The effects of State-Wide Prohibition would be more disastrous than the effects of county prohibition, and upon a more gigantic scale.

The illicit sale of liquors by boot-leggers, in blind tigers and kitchen bar-rooms would be established throughout the state, displacing the present licensed, well regulated open drinking place.

As in the counties under the Rose law, State-Wide Prohibition would lead to the increased use of nerve-destroying, brain-racking narcotic drugs with the well-known attendant terrifying evils.

State-Wide Prohibition would destroy and confiscate property, the value of which may be conservatively estimated at $450,000,000.

This confiscation would produce a business calamity defying description.

Vote "NO" ON Prohibition

With the destruction of this property, one hundred thousand men would be thrown upon the streets, out of jobs, with the result that the families dependant upon them would be impoverished, thereby affecting the grocer, the butcher, the baker, and every merchant from whom they purchased goods.

This army of unemployed men would be thrown in competition with those now holding jobs. Wages would be reduced accordingly.

State-Wide Prohibition would cause the vacation of thousands of homes and store rooms throughout the state and an immediate depreciation in property values and rents.

Every taxpayer in the state would not only suffer from the destruction and depreciation of these immense property values, but would be called on to pay increased taxes.

State-Wide Prohibition would destroy $2,400,000 of revenue paid into the treasury of the state from the licensed saloon alone. In addition to this it would destroy the state's proportion of the general property tax affected by prohibition.

It would destroy the state's income from the corporation tax on the capital stock of those manufacturing and selling liquors.

Vote "YES" ON Home Rule

The burdens of this loss to the state would have to be borne by the taxpayers in addition to the loss of $1,200,000 to the counties of the state and $3,000,000 to the municipalities of the state, now produced from the direct tax upon the liquor business. This calculation does not take into account the townships', municipalities' or counties' shareot the immense revenues derived from the $450,000,000 of property values affected by State-Wide Prohibition.

All of this would mean taxes—more taxes.

As an example of this, note the decreased revenues to the state, counties and municipalities when the Rose County Prohibition Law had been put into operation.

To meet these declining revenues, tax values would be greatly increased, the burden falling upon the home owner, upon the farmer, upon the business man and manufacturer who have most of their property in such form that the assessor cannot miss it.

Vote "NO" ON Prohibition

The loss of revenue to the state is small by comparison to the loss which will fall upon the Federal Government.

One-thirteenth of the Internal Revenue Tax upon liquors is contributed by those engaged in the business of manufacturing and selling in Ohio, or in round numbers, $18,000,000.

Even now the national government is finding it necessary, because of the war in Europe with its effect upon the revenues of this country, to pass an emergency revenue measure.

Prohibition in Ohio would weaken the treasury of the United States to extent of $18,000,000 yearly, and would doubtless lead to an increase in the income tax and the imposition of many new forms of taxation.

A further vital effect of State-Wide Prohibition would be to bring ruin to many diversified industries and their employees in the state.

A few of these would be the Cigar Makers, Bottle Makers, Harness Makers, Blacksmith, Wagon Makers, Coopers, Building Material Contractors and Manufacturers, Coal Producers and Miners, Machinery and Tool Makers—in fact it would affect practically every line of business endeavor in the state.

Vote "NO" ON Prohibition

State-Wide Prohibition would mean the acceptance of a condition that has proven to be absolutely a failure wherever tried, and would displace a license system now in operation in this state which is characterized by all fair students of the liquor question as an unqualified success.

Will our people, after having adopted a license system in one year, completely overturn it the next?

Home Rule meets the wishes of every community. It makes for law observance.

Prohibition, whether county or state, meets the opposition of many communities. It makes for law violation.

Vote "Yes" on Home Rule

THE HOME RULE AMENDMENT MEANS—

THE RIGHT OF EVERY CITY, TOWN AND TOWNSHIP TO MAKE ITSELF WET OR DRY.

STATE-WIDE PROHIBITION MEANS—

THOUSANDS WILL BE ADDED TO THE ARMY OF UNEMPLOYED.

WAGES WILL GO DOWN.

TAXES WILL BE INCREASED.

MILLIONS OF DOLLARS OF INVESTMENTS WILL BE DESTROYED.

YOU CANNOT BUY BEER, WINES OR LIQUORS IN OHIO EVEN FOR YOUR PERSONAL USE.

Every elector of Ohio who believes in Home Rule and who is opposed to prohibition should make certain that he vote, not only YES on the first amendment appearing on the ballot, but NO on the last.

WORKMEN'S FOES GETTING ACTIVE

Liability Companies Openly Oppose Governor Cox.

WILLIS CONNECTED WITH THEM

Letter Soliciting Opposition to Governor Because He Secured Enactment of Compulsory Compensation Law Appears Simultaneous With Attack by Republican Candidate on the Industrial Commission.

Information reached Democratic headquarters this week that insurance companies handling liability business were making vigorous efforts against Governor Cox's election. After he had obtained a copy of one letter sent out, Democratic chairman W. L. Finley addressed an open letter to Frank B. Willis, Republican candidate for governor, demanding in the name of the workingmen of the state to know where he stands on compensation and what his plans for the future were.

The letter in question was sent out by S. M. Ferris of Cincinnati, president of the Ferris Agency company, and was written on stationery of the National Insurance company of 115 Broadway, New York.

It was an instruction to agents of the company to get after bonds of public officials after the election in the state. Then came the following postscript:

"As the attitude of Governor Cox towards insurance interests in general has been unfriendly and antagonistic, especially as relates to the present workmen's compensation law, it is my earnest desire that you use every effort to elect a Republican governor, from whom we can expect relief."

Telegrams from Cincinnati quoted President Ferris as admitting he had written and sent out such a letter.

On receipt of that information, Chairman Finley put out an open letter to Congressman Frank B. Willis in which he said:

"I demand of you on behalf of the voters of Ohio and of all the workmen and their wives and families who are interested in the industrial commission and the fund it handles, what is your plan?"

The open letter was in course of preparation before the Ferris letter was given out. The letter was in reply to the speeches of Mr. Willis, in which he had criticized, as an example of extravaganace, the commissions formed by Governor Cox and had made the industrial commission one of the features of the address, claiming its expense was 329 per cent above that which had preceded it.

Repeatedly since the campaign started Governor Cox has said the liability companies were fighting him in the hope of having the compensation law so changed that liability companies could compete with the state. The Democratic headquarters says the Ferris letter is proof of all Governor Cox claimed and brings into the campaign an entirely new issue.

"Are you taking the place of the Ohio Equity association at the head of the organized liability companies who stand ready to spend millions to break down the workmen's compensation law?" is a question in the open letter to Willis.

"In the course of your extended campaign seeking election on the Republican ticket to the office of governor of Ohio you are making charges and have made the most reckless statements and misquotation of facts on various subjects," the letter goes on.

"Passing by your onslaught against the state highway department, your equivocal explanation of uncertain platform planks, the question of veracity raised by yourself and your organization, and, for the time being, overlooking your record in the Ohio legislature and the national congress, as well as your connection with the trusts as shown by the infamous Archbold letters, I wish to take up specifically your more recent charges, 'That Governor Cox has given to the state the most extravagant and financially reckless administration in the state's history.'

"You charge that this is due to the creation of expensive commissions, and then, in an attempt to mislead and deceive, you enumerate legislative commissions, created by every general assembly, even those of which you were a member.

"You take up specifically the comparison of the administration of Governor Harris, last Republican governor, in 1908, and that of Governor Cox, in an effort to show great increases. You name in numerical order a list of twenty-five, including the legislative commissions, and quote figures in a way that is dishonest, to deliberately and willfully misrepresent. You say:

"'The industrial commission, 285 employes, receives $369,660, or an average of $1,296.81 for each employe; an increase of 329 per cent over the expenditure for this work in 1908.'

"You fail to define 'this work' or give the basis of your figures. Under Governor Harris the workmen of Ohio had no industrial insurance. Yet you make comparison with the cost of the new compulsory workmen's compensation, to which you add the previous expenditures of seven boards of sixteen members.

"You failed to state that now there is but one board of only three members, and that the increased activities and benefits under workmen's compensation have necessitated increased cost and that the results are worth the price. Nor did you state that this commission has paid out nearly $1,000,000 to injured workmen and to widows and orphans of killed workmen at the cheapest cost to employers in the country.

"Are you taking the place of the Ohio Equity association, at the head of organized liability companies, who stand ready to spend millions to break down the workmen's compensation law?

"Is it your purpose, if elected governor, to lead out the industrial commission into numerous units from which it was made? Is it your idea to do away with the industrial commission which administers the workmen's compensation fund at greater benefit to the employes and at less cost to the employers than any other workmen's insurance in the country?

"I demand of you on behalf of the voters of Ohio and of all the workmen and their wives and families who are interested in the industrial commission and the fund it handles, what is your plan?

"If you condemn the industrial commission and its operation for the benefit of the people, what have you to offer in its place?

Illinois will construct 16,000 miles of paved country roads immediately.

QUIT MEAT WHEN KIDNEYS BOTHER

Take a glass of Salts before breakfast if your Back hurts or Bladder is troubling you.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which excites the kidneys, they become overworked from the strain, get sluggish and fail to filter the waste and poisons from the blood, then we get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, dizziness, sleeplessness and urinary disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passing or attended by a sensation of scalding, stop eating meat and get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stmulate the kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.

AN OLD RECIPE TO DARKEN HAIR

Common garden Sage and Sulphur makes streaked, faded or gray hair dark and glossy at once.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray; also ends dandruff, itching scalp and stops falling hair. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is mussy and troublesome.

Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy." You will get a large bottle for about 50 cents. Everybody uses this old, famous recipe, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger. EARTHQUAKES IN BIBLE SYMBOLOGY

Yet Once More Will Jehovah Shake Not the Earth Only, But Also Heaven.

CLOSING OF THE GOSPEL AGE

Significance of Earthquakes—The Part They Play In Nature—In Grace. Their Association With the Reign of Sin and Death—Grand Results to Be Expected—Stability of the New Order of Things in the Messianic Kingdom—Dark Hour Preceding the Millennial Morning of Blessing.

October 18.—Pastor Russell's text today was, "There shall be great earthquakes in divers places, and famines and pestilences; and fearful sights and great signs shall there be from Heaven." (Luke 21:11.) He said:

It is far from our thought that in itself an earthquake is a sign of the end of the Age; but the prevalence of earthquakes since the beginning of this twentieth century properly enough attracts our attention to "What say the Scriptures?" upon this subject. Our text is from the Master's own lips—a part of His description of the trouble coming upon the world in the close of this Gospel Age, preparatory to the inauguration of the Millennial Age and its glorious manifestation of righteousness under the King of kings.

The Master was answering a question asked by His disciples respecting the End of the Age and the signs which would mark its close. In the context our Lord had told them that they might expect to hear of wars and tumults, but not to be terrified: for although such things would occur; they would not be indications that the end of the Age was near. Then, coming to the events to be expected at the close of the Age, He used the words of our text. He also declared that before these terrible indications of the End of the Age, His disciples would suffer persecutions in the synagogues, churches, etc., for His sake and for the Truth's sake.

Fire of This Day Symbolic.

Our Adventist friends have also been calling attention to Scriptures predicting great tribulation upon the world in the very near future; but our message is a very different one from theirs and is used for a very different purpose. Their message is that the convulsions of nature now due will result in "a wreck of matter and a crush of worlds"—in the utter destruction of our race and the reduction of this earth to a mass of cinder; and they use this message as a club to drive the wicked to seek protection of the Lord.

Be it noticed how different is our reference to these calamities. We hold with the Scriptures that "the earth abideth forever"; that cold and heat, summer and winter, will continue as long as the earth remains; and that God made not the earth in vain, but formed it to be inhabited.—Ecclesiastes 1:4; Genesis 8:22; Isaiah 45:18.

We have already pointed out that the fire of this Day of the Lord will be a symbolic one, just as the "fiery trials" of the Church throughout this Age have not generally consisted even in part of literal fire; and that the fiery troubles coming upon the world will overthrow present institutions—political, social, financial and religious—and will engulf the whole world in anarchy. In the Scriptures this is symbolically called in some places a flood and in others a consuming fire.

We have also pointed out that the passing away of present institutions, symbolically called "the heavens and the earth that are now," will be followed by the establishment of "a new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness"—the reorganization of society along lines of Divine approval, intimated by the words of our Lord's prayer, "Thy Kingdom come: Thy will be done on earth, as it is done in Heaven."

Fearful Sights and Great Wonders.

We will not attempt to prognosticate the character of the frightful signs which belong to the close of this Age; but they [illegible] clearly mentioned by our Lord, and also foretold by the Psalmist, saying, "I will show wonders [illegible] and signs in the [illegible] blood and fire and [illegible]"—Joel 2:30; Acts 2:19.

The Apostle Paul refers to the same thing in Hebrews 12:26-28. He refers to the establishment of the Law Covenant at Mount Sinai [illegible] ful manifestations which at that time caused Moses and [illegible] fear and quake. Then he [illegible] these events were typical [illegible] of the still more wonderful [illegible] signs, etc., to be [illegible] ing of this Gospel Age. [illegible] dom of God is about [illegible] and the New Covenant [illegible] effect between God and [illegible] the bonds of the great [illegible] Christ and the Church.

St. Paul declares that the Word of the Lord upon this subject implies the removing of all things that can be shaken, so that only the unshakable things will remain, and those unshakable things he associates with God's Kingdom of righteousness. When with the eyes of our understanding open we look about us we see very many things that evidently are not permanent, not right, not satisfactory to God and to all who love righteousness and hate iniquity; and when we reflect that the shaking will be such as to loosen and destroy all these imperfect things of the present time, we can imagine better than we can describe the severity of that shaking.

In the Revelation this same thought is expressed under the figure of a mighty earthquake, the like of which there had not been before and will never be thereafter. (Revelation 16:18.) Throughout the Apocalypse the term earthquake is used to symbolically represent revolution. What we are to expect, then, will be a great revolution, a great earthquake, the great shaking of the present institutions which will overthrow everything that is not of the Lord's establishment and approval.

In the Divine order there seems to be a harmony between the literal and the figurative; therefore the literal earthquakes have their part to play in the great Program. Not only are they to serve the Church as signs corroborating the prophecies respecting the approach of the great Time of Trouble which closes this Gospel Age, but they are to serve also another purpose—a particular purpose.

The Scriptures clearly intimate that our physical earth has not yet attained the grand perfection which the Lord designs that it should have, to be fit for the blessed ones whose home, as the Paradise of God, it shall be throughout all eternity. Be it noticed that the Scriptures clearly point out that the Little Flock, called of God during this Gospel Age to be the Bride of Christ, are to experience a change of nature from human to spirit, which will prepare them for Heavenly conditions, spiritual conditions. But for the remainder of mankind God's provision, according to His Word, is not the change of nature, but a restoration to the perfection of human nature and the development of the earth to that perfect condition which will make it as a whole the antitype of the Garden of Eden—the Paradise restored.

Deluge Then, Fire and Earthquake Now

We have already called attention to the fact that the flood of waters in Noah's time was caused by the breaking of the last of a series of rings that once surrounded the earth after the manner of the rings of the planet Saturn. Foreknowing the wickedness that would develop amongst mankind and the power that would be exercised amongst men by the giants of that day (Genesis 6:4), God had so timed the breaking of this last ring that the flood of waters would serve the purpose of overthrowing that order of things and making ready for the next feature of the Divine Program, the present order, which began after the Deluge, upon the coming of Noah and his family out of the Ark.

Similarly, the Scriptures teach, God has reserved for the appropriate time in the end of this Age certain great physical disturbances necessary to the development of the earth and its preparation for the Reign of Righteousness and blessing of mankind, so that the troubles incidental to this change will come upon the world as disastrous floods, etc., and will co-operate in the bringing of mankind into sore straits and trials of faith and patience, which will result in anarchy and the complete shaking, not only of the physical earth, but also of the social earth and the ecclesiastical, or "heavenly," institutions, in order that all unstable things may pass away and that the new order of things may be ushered in on a permanent basis, having the Divine approval, and meaning ultimately the grandest blessing for our race.

From this standpoint a certain class can read the signs of the times intelligently and with confidence; and this class the Scriptures call the Lord's Little Flock (Luke 12:32), counted foolish by the world, but counted of the Lord as "the wise" who are to "understand." (Daniel 12:10.) To these the Master Himself addressed these words, "There shall be signs in the sun, in the moon and in the stars; and upon earth distress of nations, with perplexity; men's hearts failing them for fear, and for looking after those things which are coming upon the earth: for the powers of heaven shall be shaken." And again, "When these things begin to come to pass, then look up, and lift up your heads; for your deliverance draweth nigh."—Luke 21:25, 26, 28.

The Lord's consecrated people, possessed of His Spirit, cannot in any sense of the word rejoice at the tribulation coming upon others. Their rejoicing can be only in respect to the glorious things which they hope to experience, and which they know to be near by these outward signs. Their rejoicing is not merely on their own behalf, but also on behalf of the whole world, for they have the assurance of the Scriptures that beyond this Time of Trouble, which looms up as a dark cloud to cover the whole social world, there is a silver lining; and that shortly the glorious Sun of Righteousness will blaze forth, dispel every cloud and all the shadows of ignorance and superstition, and bring to the world of mankind the rich blessings of Divine favor secured through the precious blood of Christ.

Great Physical Changes Now Due.

From this standpoint the signs of destructive earthquakes here and there appeals to us as incidental corroboration of the prophecies of Scripture which show us that we are very near the long threatened Time of Trouble. True, there may be a lull for a brief period; but we have confidence that our Lord's prophecy as recorded in our text has a meaning, and that the time for its fulfillment must be very near at hand. We are well aware that the natural man and his scientific leaders will consider the association of the facts of our day with the words uttered more than eighteen centuries ago as very foolish. We are aware that they will say, as the Apostle Peter declared they would, that "all things continue as they have been from the foundation of the world," and that such changes have been going on, and will continue to do so, without any relationship to our Lord's Second Presence and the Time of Trouble with which this Age will end. (2 Peter 3:3, 4.) This is their view—the reverse is ours.

The Word of God teaches us that at this time of transition from the Gospel Age to the Messianic Age we are to expect wonderful contortions of nature and some radical changes in the earth's condition, in order that it may be the better adapted to the wants of man throughout eternity. It is God's own declaration that He will make the place of His feet glorious—the earth, His "footstool."—Isaiah 60:13; 66:1.

Evidently great and wonderful changes will be effected, some of which will be brought about gradually. For instance, we all know of the gradual change of the temperate zone—its extension further and further toward the poles. We notice also the increasing moderation nearer to the equator. Those who recognize the Power of God can have full confidence that He is able to perform all the glorious promises of His Word respecting the paradisiacal conditions of this earth for the use of mankind during the Millennial Age and the ages to follow.

Symbolical Earthquakes—Revolutions.

As already intimated, social upheavals are pictured in the Word of God under the symbolism of earthquakes, "mountains carried into the sea," etc. Similarly, uprisings of the social elements in anarchy are pictured as tidal waves engulfing the "mountains"—governments. This is one of the most forceful pictures used, not only in the Psalms, but also in the Revelation and in our Lord's symbolical reference to the great Time of Trouble which is near at hand. Of this time the Prophet Daniel has declared that it will be "a Time of Trouble such as was not since there was a nation;" and our Lord, when quoting this prophecy, adds, "No, nor ever shall be."—Daniel 12:1; Matthew 24:21.

Let us not be misunderstood to be advocating anarchy or revolution of any kind. On the contrary, we are giving heed to the Master's injunction that all who are His true followers seek peace and pursue it, and so far as possible live peaceably with all men; that like Himself they should not resist evil with evil, force with force, but should rather commit their way unto the Lord, seek to walk in His paths, and rely upon Him for the results that will be to their profit and His glory.

So far from counseling anarchy, we hold and teach that even the meanest and poorest form of government is superior to anarchy; and in all sympathy and kindness we counsel those who are tending toward Socialism that they are unsuspectingly "hatching cockatrice eggs;" for under present conditions Socialism is absolutely impossible. The rich will not give up their advantages without a struggle to the death; and this, as soon as Socialism shall have gained the power which it is seeking, will spell anarchy for the world. For those now starting in with Socialistic hopes will find those hopes vain, and will become so angered, so disappointed, that they will be soured, embittered, mad, with the deceptions of their theories and the impossibility of carrying them out, as they intended, along the lines of benevolence. As a result, they will be drawn to the desperate methods of the anarchist.

Would that all could see with us what the Scriptures so clearly indicate: namely, the Divine foreknowledge of past, present and future conditions, and the Divine arrangement of these for the highest welfare of all who seek righteousness, all who hearken to the voice of Him that speaketh from Heaven! Such the Lord urges to take His yoke upon them and learn of Him: that they accept of trials and difficulties incidental to loyalty to Him, and thus be counted worthy of a share in the highest and best of all God's gifts—to be sharers with our Lord Jesus in His Throne, in His nature and in the power which shortly He will exercise in the blessing of all mankind with Restitution.—Acts 3:19-21.

The More Excellent Way.

We urge all who are the Lord's to seek more and more to understand His wonderful Plan of Salvation, to glorify Him with their bodies and their spirits, which are His, and to wait for His time and His manner of bringing in the blessings which all see are so much needed by the poor "groaning creation." Meantime, all such should cultivate the graces of the Holy Spirit; or, as the Apostle puts it, "put on Christ." His character, His meekness, patience, long suffering, brotherly kindness, love, against which things there is no law. Respecting these graces St. Peter declares, "If ye do these things ye shall never fall; for so an entrance shall be ministered unto you abundantly into the everlasting Kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ."—2 Peter 1:10, 11.

These cannot be shaken out of the Lord's hand by any tumult. Indeed, if they be in the disasters of literal earthquakes they will be able to rejoice even in tribulation, knowing that all things work together for good to those who love God.

SCIENCE'S LATEST POLAR WEAPONS

New Devices Carried by the Shackleton Expedition.

UNIQUE MOTOR SLEDGES.

Two of the Five Taken on Antarctic Quest Have Air Propellers—Enough Specially Prepared Food Packed In Sausage Skins to Last Through the 1,700 Mile Trip.

Air propelled motor sledges mounted on flat runners like skis form the main reliance of the antarctic expedition headed by Sir Ernest Shackleton, which is on its way to explore the great continent that surrounds the south pole. A writer in Popular Mechanics declares that in this and many other respects the expedition is better equipped with modern devices than any previous body of polar explorers has ever been.

Details of food supply, shelter and provisions for the general health and comfort of the members of the party have been worked out with scientific care, tested in the snowfields of northern Norway and pronounced perfect.

Five motor sledges will be taken. One of these has a fifty-five horsepower gasoline engine, another a forty horsepower. These two have air propellers, but for use against head winds they are also equipped with positive drive mechanism in the form of toothed drums attached at the rear to engage the ice and snow. In the extremely low temperatures of the antarctic the snow becomes as loose as dry sand, so these sledges are mounted on flat, skilike runners to prevent them from stalling.

Result of a Seven Day Test.

In a seven day test in Norway one of these air propelled sledges, carrying six men, towed another sledge weighing 400 pounds and carrying two men, at a speed of from fifteen to twenty miles an hour. Only a thirty horsepower motor was used instead of the larger ones that have since been installed, with which a speed of twenty-two miles an hour up a 10 per cent grade with three men on board has been made.

Two other sledges have the positive drive only and are expected to cover about fifty miles a day each as against the 75 to 100 miles of the aero sledges. The engines of these are water cooled, and the water jackets are piped to steam cooking appliances, so that food may be heated while on the march.

Scientifically Devised Rations.

The food problem of the Shackleton expedition is a particularly difficult one. Food supplies for the entire journey of 900 miles from Weddell sea to the pole and 800 miles from the pole to Ross sea must be taken along, whereas most polar explorers are able to make caches of food for use on the return journey. So a scientifically devised ration, on which the members of the party have already subsisted for days at a time, has been prepared and enough of it packed in sausage skins for easier transportation to last through the 1,700 mile trip.

Each man will receive thirty-six ounces of food daily, instead of the three pounds which is the average consumption. In this will be six ounces of lard, four ounces of sugar and two ounces of a mixture of dried milk, protein and oats. The rest of the ration consists of Brazil nuts, almonds and beechnuts mixed with oil and dried milk. The fat content of the ration is larger than the normal for temperate climates, since the low temperature will place a severe strain on the heat producing elements of the body, which can only be kept up to normal by plenty of fat foods.

UNCLE SAM SOCKS ABROAD.

Patterned After the American Flag and Sold in London.

Socks patterned after the design of the American flag are on sale in London. One purveyor asserted that these Uncle Sam socks were meant to establish the identity of Americans going on continental missions.

Stripes run from top to bottom of the socks, with the exception of three rows of stars on a blue field just above the ankle. It was argued by one plausible merchant that no passport would be needed for the wearer of such a creation. Low shoes must be worn to get the proper effect.

Russian Fitness Surprises Berlin.

"The Russians," writes a correspondent of the Nieuw Rotterdamsche Courant in Berlin, "are very much better than they were thought to be. One hears that on every side. From Austria one hears that the way the men are clothed and shod is splendid. Alcohol has been forbidden throughout the Russian army, and a strong hand is being kept on the soldiers."

Bread From Tulip Bulbs.

On account of the scarcity of wheat in Holland the Association of Dutch Bakers has sanctioned the use of a so called "tulip bread," in which one-third of the flour used is made from ground tulip bulbs. The bread is said to be very nourishing, and the war ministry has recommended its use in the army.

SALOONS TO KNOW FATE IN 8 DAYS

GOVERNOR COX'S ORDER TO LICENSING BOARDS PROVES WILLIS' CHARGE FALSE.

Names of Licensees Could Have Been Held Until After Election If Desired.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Columbus, Oct. 19.—As proof of the falsity of charges repeatedly made by Congressman Frank b. Willis, Republican candidate for governor, that Governor Cox is in a shameful and unholy alliance with the liquor interests and that names of saloon licensees are being withheld until after the election in an effort to dragoon the saloonkeepers into supporting the Democratic ticket, the state liquor licensing board yesterday, by direct order of the governor, sent out notices to local boards in all the 42 wet counties to announce the names of those whose licenses have been renewed, and the recipients of new licenses, within the next eight days, or more than a week before the November election.

Under the license law, the names of licensees need not be announced until Nov. 5, which would be two days after the election. However, the position is taken by the administration that it will not suffer the names of licensees to be withheld until that time for fear that some of the men engaged in the business might feel that their license depended upon their political activity.

This action is being taken by the governor as an earnest of the good faith in carrying out the wishes of the people in adopting the license system. He had decided to take this course many days ago, but absence from the city prevented earlier direction to the state license board. This throwing of political expedience to the winds has caused much comment in administration circles, but it is declared to be in direct line with the governor's views in handling questions of morality.

As sponsor for the law which has rid the state of the sale of liquor in dives, gambling houses and road houses and brought about the enforcement of statutes regulating sale to minors and drunkards, the governor was unwilling to see the records that he has achieved tranished by any suspicion that he and his associates on the Democratic state ticket were attempting to profit by the involuntary support of the licensees.

This attitude of the administration will have an interesting effect upon the radical dry element in the Democratic party, it is believed, and it already has been admitted even by those unfriendly to the governor. That it will have a decided effect upon the candidacy of Congressman Willis is said to be admitted among Republican leaders, who are reported to have conceded the re-election of the governor unless the dry Democrats could be taken from him and switched to Mr. Willis.

BUYS NERV-WORTH FOR WIFE'S SAKE

Prominent Insurance Man Tells How Wonderfully Nerv-Worth Benefited Her Health.

A few days ago, moved by his desire to benefit his wife's fellow-sufferers, Mr. Fred P. Drumm, a Canton, Ohio, insurance man, whose office is in room 2?, Eagle Block, that city, wrote to Messrs. Roth & Hug. Here are Mr. Drumm's exact words:

"I noticed your advertisements of Nerv-Worth in our city papers and concluded to buy a bottle for my wife, who has been suffering with nervousness for several years, having nervous headache, sleepless nights, stomach trouble and a general run-down condition. After taking Nerv-Worth for only a few days her condition is much improved. No headaches. She sleeps all night and is refreshed in the morning. I recommend Nerv-Worth to our people in Canton who are suffering with nervousness."

This is a representative case. Nerv-Worth advertisements attract the attention of a great many men whose wives are victims of nervous disorders and whose faith in Nerv-Worth is aroused by the printed advertisements of the remedy and by the fact that it is guaranteed to overcome nervous trouble.

Such men go to their druggist, as Mr. Drumm went to Roth & Hug, buy the remedy and ask their wives to try it. That's all the Nerv-Worth Specialist asks. To try to get results and to get results is to do as Mr. Drumm did—tell friends and neighbors.

Don't put up with, sleeplessness, dizziness, palpitation, trembling, palpitation of the heart, sick and nervous headaches, pains of the chest and sides, weakness and a run-down condition of the nerves when a bottle or two of Nerv-Worth will rid you of them. Get the Nerv-Worth Specialist at Evans Drug Store. He will give a free sample dose, to show you how palatable and invigorating it

OHIO LOSES TO DENISON MEN SATURDAY

Granville, O., Oct. 19.—On a field deep with mud, Ohio university, of Athens, met their first defeat Saturday at the hands of Denison university, when the Baptists crossed the Ohio goal three times during 60 minutes of play.

The rain which had been pouring down all morning, fortunately ceased just before the game was called. During the first half Ohio gained considerably more ground than Denison and would have made a touchdown had not R. Finsterwold dropped the ball just as he was going over the Denison goal line. Ohio had the ball on Denison's one foot line when time was called for the end of the first half.

During this half Palmer made a 35-yard run and several gains for shorter distances. Denison was slow in getting away at the start and did not wake up until Captain Palmer fumbled the ball on his own 20-yard line, Denison, then in possession of the ball, went over the Ohio goal for the first touchdown.

In the second half Denison let loose a bunch of trick plays and forward passes which kept the visitors guessing. One touchdown was the result of a series of three forward passes. Another touchdown was made on a forward pass. Roudebush to Thiel. Denison failed to make two touchdowns when within five yards of Ohio's goal, because of incompleted forward passes.

Rupp played his usual sensational game and was the big ground gainer for Denison. Roudebush had his forward pass working well and many gains were made by this route. Palmer and R. Finsterwold did the best work for Ohio. Lineup and summary:

WORLD FACES A MEAT SHORTAGE ACCOUNT OF WAR

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Chicago, Oct. 19.—Shortage of meat supply faces the world as a result of the European war, George L. McCarthy of New York, secretary of the American Meat Packers Association, asserted before the ninth annual convention of the association which opened here today.

Light on the question of the diminishing beef supply, the waning herds on the American cattle ranches, methods to be adopted to induce farmers to raise more stock and the effects of the war on the cost of food products is expected to be shed by the convention which is to be in session for three days.

Among subjects to be discussed by the convention will be a request for the government to make an appropriation to stamp out tuberculosis in cattle and an appeal for the removal of the tax from oleomargarine.

WILLARD'S PLEA FOR INCREASED FREIGHT RATES

B. & O. PRESIDENT STATES THAT RELIEF PROPOSED BY COMMISSION IS INADEQUATE

Asks For a Flat Increase of Five Per Cent. to Insure Successful Operation.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Washington, Oct. 19.—President Daniel E. Willard, of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, chairman of the committee of railroad presidents made the opening statement before the interstate commerce commission today for the Eastern railways in their application for increased freight rates, based upon the world wide financial exigency due in great measure to the European war.

"The needs of the carriers are pressing and immediate" he declared. "The actual situation has become extremely critical."

The roads are seeking a flat increase of five per cent. in freight rates throughout the territory east of the Mississippi and north of the Ohio and Potomac rivers.

Mr. Willard called attention to the decision in the former case, wherein was stated that "the net operating income of the railroads in official classification territory, is smaller than is demanded in the interest of both the general public and the railroads" and to the fact that the railroads had already taken action to secure additional revenues through various advances and changes of practice. "The measures of relief proposed by the commission will not in our opinion adequately meet the existing situation," he added.

"The annual statements of all the railroads involved in this proceeding combined, for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1914, show roundly that the total operating revenues during that year were approximately $57,000,000 less during the previous year, while the operating expenses during the same period were approximately $18,000,000 greater.

"A war such as that now raging causes great and immediate disturbance to industry, commerce and finance. It causes contraction of credit and great restriction, if not the actual stoppage of interstate trade as well as serious disturbances to domestic commerce, and as we have seen, it has thrown the security markets of the world, first into panic and then into suspension of operations.

"Insofar as the war and its consequences tend to change the conditions surrounding the enlistment of new capital, they tend to change the fundamental relation between railroad and shipper for the cost of capital is one of the most important elements of the cost of transportation.

"It is known that the railroads of the United States have over $520,000,000 outstanding obligations which will mature and must be met within the next 12 months alone. It was shown in the original record in this case that the railroads in official classification territory only had spent approximately $2,000,000,000 per annum upon their properties for improvement and extension during the last 10 years period, and it will be necessary to continue such expenditures if the roads are to maintain their standard of service and provide for the growing needs of the future.

"Further, as nearly as can be ascertained, there are more than $3,500,000,000 par value of American railroad securities held abroad as investments. The demands for cash in Europe, growing out of the present situation, will doubtless result in large selling of such securities when the markets or stock exchanges are again opened, and the possible effect of such selling upon railroad credit and related subjects is causing much concern.

"With all this in mind it will readily be seen that the available supply of and probable damand of new capital, as well as the interest rates thereon, are matters of great importance, not only to the railroads, but also to those who depend upon them for transportation."

The public hearings on the new application of eastern railroads for increased freight rates which they contend are necessary because of the world-wide financial exigency due in part to the European war were begun here today before the interstate commerce commission. The commission is hearing argument only upon issues which have arisen since its decision in July which denied absolutely increases east of Pittsburg and Buffalo and granted increases west from those points to the Mississippi river.

All the commissioners excepting Chairman Harlan, who is ill were present. Commissioner Clements presided. The railroad lines were represented by their principal executives. Individual shippers and shippers' organizations who oppose further increases were presented by counsel, among them Clifford Thorne who led the opposition to the last application.

Today's hearing was given over to a statement for the railroads.

The shippers and their representatives will be heard later.

Daniel E. Willard, made the opening statement for the roads.

Mr. Willard concluded his statement by saying that a "grave emergency exists," and that should it appear at any time, that the emergency had passed, the commission had power to order reductions, and that he was of the opinion that should reductions be shown to be warranted the railroads would not oppose them.

George Stuart Patterson, general counsel for the Pennsylvania, asked that Vice President Shriver of the Baltimore and Ohio be appointed to submit data for the eastern railroads as a whole to support Mr. Willard's statement. Mr. Shriver presented statistics of the financial condition of the railroads for the year ending June 30, which were not available for the commission's consideration in the previous case. This synopsis of his statement was presented by Mr. Shriver:

"Operating results of 1914, was $1,875,000,000, less by $48,000,000 than in 1913, although operating expenses (notwithstanding the smaller amount of business handled) were $22,000,000 more than in the previous year. While the business handled in 1914 was, excepting 1913, the largest in 15 years, the net operating income was the smallest shown in 10 years.

"Taxes increased $2,000,000 in 1914 and since 1900 they increased 157 per cent.

"For the Pennsylvania, the New York Central, and the Baltimore and Ohio, net operating income in 1914 was $11,176,000 less than in 1913, and the lowest in 10 years. Dividends paid by those three systems were smallest in five years and at the lowest average rate for 10 years.

"In 1914 for the three systems the sum available for interest, dividends and surplus amounted to but 4.54 per cent on total capital obligations, a rate much less than of any shown in the preceding fourteen years. Previous to 1914, the rate did not fall below 5.67 per cent.

WILSON PENS A LETTER TO UNDERWOOD

IN WHICH HE ENDORSES ALL DEMOCRATIC MEMBERS OF CONGRESS.

Congratulates Majority Leader and Commends the Consummation of Promised Legislation.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Washington, Oct. 19. — President Wilson made public Sunday a letter to Majority Leader Underwood of the House in which he reviewed the achievements of his administration, outlined the program for the next session of congress, and declared "the Democratic party is now in fact the only instrument ready to the country's hand by which anything can be accomplished."

The President wrote the letter as an endorsement of all Democratic members of congress in lieu of speeches he said he would like to make in every congressional district. He predicted victory for his party in the elections because "every thoughtful man sees that a change of parties just now would set the clock back, not forward," and because "a practical nation is not likely to reject such a team, full of the spirit of public service, and substitute, in the midst of great tasks, either a party upon which a deep demoralization has fallen or a party which has not grown to a stature that would warrant its assuming the responsible burdens of state."

The legislative program begun during the present congress was declared by the President to have been begun "to destroy private control and set business free." He said that the people of the country had been served by this congress as "they have never been served before."

Outlining the work already accomplished, Mr. Wilson mentioned the reform of the tariff, the passage of the new currency bill, the anti-trust bills, and the handling of foreign problems. He said he doubted if "there has ever been a finer exhibition of teamwork or of unhesitating devotion to the fulfillment of party pledges."

Praising the new tariff bill, the President asserted that "private control had shown its sinister face on every hand in America, had shown it for a long time, and sometimes very brazenly, in the trusts and in the virtual domination of credit by small groups of men." He said that high prices did not spring directly from the tariff, but out of the suppression of competition which flourished more easily under the protection of a high tariff. He declared that the panic which opponents of the new bill predicted, had not come, and that despite the European war there had been sufficient time to prove the success of the act.

The trade commission bill and the Clayton anti-trust bill were spoken of as designed to make men in a small way of business as free to succeed as men in a big way, and to call monopoly in the end. He added that monopolies are built upon unfair methods of competition," which would be eliminated by the new legislation. "Monopoly is to be cut off at the roots," he declared.

"If our party were to be called upon to name the particular tenet of principle in which it differs from its opponents most sharply and in which it feels itself most definitely sustained by experience," continued the President, "we should no doubt say that it was this: That we would have no dealings with monopoly but reject it altogether; while our opponents were ready to adopt it into the realm of law, and seek merely to regulate it and moderate it in its operation. It is our purpose to destroy monopoly and maintain competition as the only effective instrument of business liberty."

Justice has been done the laborer, declared the President, and his labor is no longer to be treated as if it "were merely an inanimate object of commerce disconnected from the fortunes and happiness of a living human being, to be dealt with as an object of sale and barter."

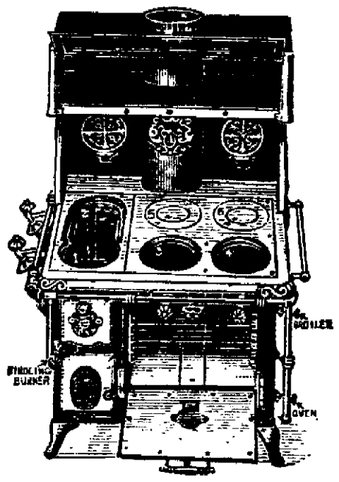

Of the currency bill Mr. Wilson said "We have created a democracy of credit such as has never existed in this country before." He declared that "credit is now at the disposal of every man who can show energy and assets," and because control of the system rested with the government, said "it is self-government as well as democracy."

It was impossible to complete rural credit legislation the latter added, but the federal reserve act itself "facilitates and enlarges agricultural credit to an extraordinary degree."

Speaking of the program for the next session of congress, the President mentioned legislation for building up the American merchant marine, and the completion of a great program for the conservation of our natural resources and the development of the water power of the country.

Without a congress in close sympathy with the administration," wrote the President, "a whole scheme of law and honor and disinterested service to the world, can not be brought to its full realization."

WATTERSON IS HONOR GUEST AT TAFT'S LUNCHEON

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Washington, Oct. 19.—A luncheon given in his honor today by former President Wm. H. Taft, was the final incident in the visit to Washington of Henry Watterson, editor of the Louisville Courier Journel

Mr. Watterson, who, following his call on President Wilson, had planned to leave for New York last night, decided to remain over when he received Mr. Taft's invitation.

Colonel Watterson's presence at the White House brought to an end the differences existing between President Wilson and George Harvey, former editor of Harper's Weekly and Mr. Watterson. His visit, like that of Mr. Harvey's recently, was on the invitation of President Wilson. He was with the President more than an hour, during which the latter's Mexican and foreign policies were discussed. Absolute harmony is said to have marked the conference. Personal matters figured in the talk, it is stated, as the President and Mr. Watterson are related through marriage.

Mr. Watterson has been supporting the President lately in his paper, and after the death of Mrs. Wilson friendly letters were exchanged between himself and Mr. Wilson.

Since Alaska was bought by the United States government the revenue from the seal islands alone has been more than twice the sum paid for the territory.
